

Travel back in time on January 1st

For one day only, while the modern buses take a day off, the 376 bus service will run between Bristol and Wells using buses of the past. They would have been seen on the 376 in previous years. You can ride on them free of charge for New Years' Day only. After that the modern buses will return..

- Buses will run the 376 route between Wells and Bristol
- Preserved buses will run every half an hour between about 0930 and 1700 on 1st January 2018 only
- All journeys will be free of charge
